

Big Question: What makes a good superhero logo?

Key Vocabulary:

Dark: Close to black in shade

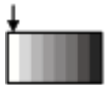

Differences: Things that aren't the same

Hard: Stays in the same shape

Light: Close to white in shade

Significant: Something that is important

Similarities: Things that are the same.

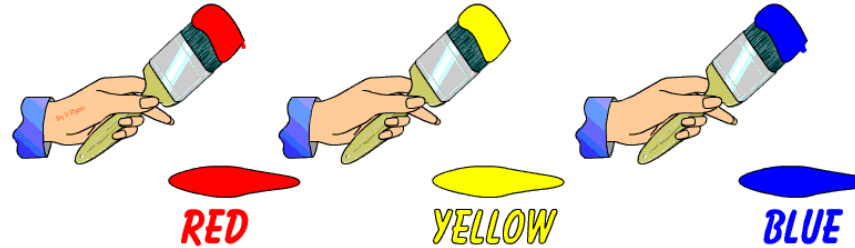

Soft: Easy to bend or shape

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- The primary colours are red, yellow and blue.

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

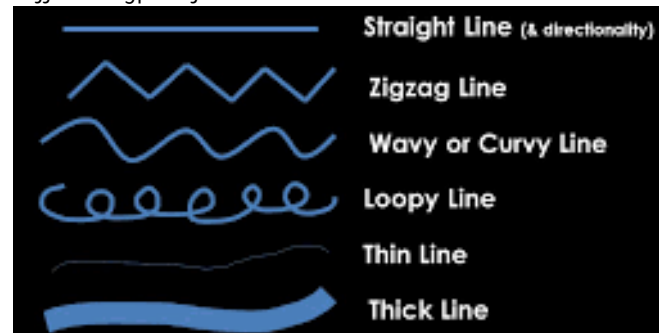

- Soft pencils make dark lines and are marked with B for black.

- Hard pencils make light lines and are marked with H for hard.

- Different types of lines:

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- Jack Kirby created lots of superheroes, like Captain America.

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- A print is made by transferring paint from one surface to another.

As an artist, the essential knowledge I need to answer the big question is:	Date
The primary colours are red, yellow and blue.
Soft pencils create darker lines and are marked with a B for black. Hard pencils create lighter lines and are marked with an H for hard. Different types of line include zigzag, wavy, curved, thick and thin.
A print is a shape or image that has been made by transferring paint, fabric paint, ink or other media from one surface to another.
Identify similarities and differences between two or more pieces of art.
Jack Kirby is a significant artist because he created lots of famous superheroes, including Captain America.	