

Big Question: How can art be created?

Key Vocabulary:

Natural resources: Materials made by nature.

Clay: A natural mouldable material, often used for sculptures.

Malleable: Materials that can be hammered or pressed into shape, without breaking or cracking.

Shape: An element of art that is two-dimensional, flat, or limited to height and width.

Form. An element of art that is three-dimensional and encloses volume; includes height, width AND depth (as in a cube, a sphere, a pyramid, or a cylinder).

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- Before creating a piece of art, some artists make observational sketches and photographs to use as a guide and for inspiration.

Photo:

Sketch:

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- Collage: a piece of art made by sticking various different materials such as photographs and pieces of paper or fabric on to a backing.

- Sculpture: the art of making three-dimensional representative or abstract forms, especially by carving stone or wood or by casting metal, clay or plaster.

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- Andy Goldsworthy- A sculptor, photographer and environmentalist who produces work based on land art.

New knowledge that will help me answer the big question:

- Transient art is art made from moveable pieces. The idea is that the art is not permanent, it is temporary.

As an artist, the essential knowledge I need to answer the big question is:	Date
A human face includes features, such as eyes, nose, mouth, forehead, eyebrows and cheeks.
Collage is an art technique where different materials are layered and stuck down to create artwork.
Discussion and initial sketches can be used to communicate ideas and are part of the artistic process.
Transient art is moveable, non-permanent and usually made of a variety of objects and materials. Natural materials, such as grass, pebbles, sand, leaves, pine cones, seeds and flowers, can be used to make transient art.
Say what they like about their own or others' work using simple artistic vocabulary.	